The invitation

Jim was at a new school. He didn't know many children in his class. "Don't worry, Jim!" said his mum. "You can make new friends!"

But Jim knew that it wasn't easy to make friends.

Tom was in Jim's class. He often smiled at Jim. "I would like to be friends with Tom," thought Jim.

One day, Tom invited Jim to his party.

"Come to my party, Jim!" he said.

"Yes, please!" said Jim. "I would like to come!"
