BEFORE YOU READ

1. Imagine it is your mother's birthday.
What would you do for her?
2. Who do you think this character is?

DON'T FORGET: There is a picture dictionary on the last pages of this book where you can look up the meanings of the words you don't know.

“Wake up, Polo!” said Polly, the polar bear. “It’s mommy’s birthday today. We have to make a surprise for her.”

“Prize?” said Polo, Polly’s little brother.

“No, surprise!” said Polly. “We’re making her breakfast in bed.”

Polo got up and followed Polly into the kitchen.

“Hmm,” said Polly. “What can we make?”

“A cake?” said Polo.

“No!” said Polly. “Cake for breakfast? Who has heard of such a thing? And I can’t hold the mixer and the bowl at the same time. The mixer would spin so fast and fall off the table.”

“And SMASH!” said Polo.

“And I can’t use the oven. Mommy always warns us not to use it,” said Polly.
